About our schedule

Employee Development & Training is a six-week online course designed for flexibility and engagement.* Coursework is structured into weekly modules, which open on Wednesdays and conclude the following Tuesday with a live discussion session.

Active participation in these discussions is highly encouraged, as they provide an opportunity to explore key lessons, share insights, and engage with fellow participants.

While you can complete coursework at your own pace, you'll gain the most value by finishing it before the discussion session to fully participate in the conversation.
